Presented by:

Aundrey Sanchez
Minnesota Department of Veterans Affairs

Aundrey Sanchez joined the US Army in 1995 and separated in 2004. While stationed at Fort Carson, he was deployed to Iraq for close to one year and upon his return he separated from the military to pursue a career in the civilian sector. He's studied at Barstow Community College and Pikes Peak Community College. He brings his military, legal, supervisory and outreach experience to the Minnesota Department of Veterans Affairs, which he joined in 2006 as a Claims Representative and now serves as the Outreach Division Supervisor.

Workshop Overview:

This workshop will cover the basic veteran's benefits at the state and federal level, and working with the Veteran's Administration. We will focus on assisting veterans in a social service setting as well. Participants will learn about available resources, tools, & techniques to best support clients who are veterans. Question and answer session will also be included in the presentation.

Metro-wide Engagement on Shelter and Housing
